

APPLEBY'S A WINNER

Having achieved the ultimate accolade for Cheshire cheese at the Cheshire Show, Appleby's Cheshire has also picked up the Cheshire Agricultural Society's Champion Cheshire Cheese trophy, sponsored by the National Farmers Union.

The winning cheese was three months old, having been made on 27th March at Hawkstone Abbey Farm, on the Cheshire Plain in North Shropshire. Paul Appleby, farmer and cheese maker, comments, "We are delighted to have won this award and we hope that customers will continue to enjoy eating the cheese that we have now made for three generations.
